

SAP America recognizes itelligence US for its outstanding customer service

Cincinnati, Ohio, February 27, 2006 – SAP America, Inc. recognized itelligence U.S. for its commitment to customer service by bestowing the mid-market full service SAP provider with the “All-in-One Customer Satisfaction Award.” The award recognizes itelligence’s consistent ranking as the partner with the highest customer service ratings.

itelligence received the award at the 2006 SAP® North America Field Kickoff Meeting (Jan. 29 – Feb. 1), SAP’s annual event which sets business and marketing strategy for its sales executives and business partners for the upcoming year.

itelligence also received recognition for top performer generating the highest revenue to SAP, awarded to account executive Phillip McKee for his ability to meet sales objectives set forth by SAP and itelligence.

"We applaud the sustained excellence of Phillip McKee who has now won this award three years running," said Gene Climer, itelligence vice president of software sales. "This award reflects itelligence's commitment to connecting SAP with new and exciting customers."

Additionally, itelligence was awarded with the “Breadth of Industry Coverage with SAP Best Practices” award. This award rewards the commitment to driving value to customers, using an approach designed to provide a common platform with reusable and compatible pre-configuration, meeting industry requirements on a very specific level.

“These awards demonstrate itelligence’s unsurpassed leadership not only in introducing a wide range of solutions that meet the unique needs of our mid-market customers, but also supporting those solutions with excellent customer service,” said Michael Sotnick, Senior Vice President for Small and Midsize Enterprises, SAP America, Inc. “We’re proud to be partners with itelligence and look forward to continuing the momentum in 2006.”
