Travel Guide "Traumziel SAP" nominated for Best of Corporate Publishing

Bielefeld (Germany) – June 5, 2008. A special type of travel guide was presented by IT complete service provider itelligence at this year's CeBIT trade fair: "Traumziel SAP" ("Dream Destination SAP"). With its refreshing style, the travel guide brings the lay person closer to the SAP world in a somewhat different way. With practical hints, insider tips and a route planner, the travel guide in pocketbook format serves as a small introduction to the SAP world.

Torsten Scholz, Director of Marketing at itelligence AG states, "We are very pleased that we are among the top five companies nominated. With this recognition from the Corporate Publishing Forum, we feel that this confirms our efforts to describe the complex world of SAP in an informal, entertaining and visibly appealing manner. As an international SAP complete service provider, we view ourselves as an "interpreter" for the midmarket for all questions concerning SAP – from the first consultation to the implementation."

"Traumziel SAP", the travel guide with around 80 pages and filled with many colorful images, has now landed in the top five to be nominated for the BCP Best of Corporate Publishing 2008 Award. The winners of Europe's largest competition for corporate communication will be determined from more than 600 registered publications. The travel guide, which is a part of the new marketing campaign from itelligence, is competing in the category Special Publications - Corporate Book.
