Bielefeld (Germany), July 24, 2008 – itelligence AG achieved the best half-year result in the history of the company, improving again on the first quarter's trend to the end of the half-year. In the first six months of the current fiscal year, revenues improved by 14.9% to MEUR 101.8 after MEUR 88.6 in the first half-year of 2007. Against the equivalent quarter of the previous year, itelligence posted a revenues upturn of 21.7%, achieving MEUR 53.9 (second quarter 2007: MEUR 44.3). At the same time, orders on hand increased by 30.1% to MEUR 160.4 (previous year: MEUR 123.3).

In the second quarter, EBIT almost doubled to MEUR 4.3 (Q2 2007: MEUR 2.2). This is equivalent to an EBIT margin of 8.1%, considerably up on the comparable figure of the previous year of 4.9%. Accordingly, EBIT for the first half-year increased by a total of 22.9% to MEUR 5.9 (HY1 2007: MEUR 4.8). The EBIT margin for the first six months was thus 5.8% (previous year: 5.4%).

After this good quarter, the itelligence Management Board confirmed the revenues and earnings forecast for the fiscal year 2008. It anticipates that for the full year itelligence will generate revenues between MEUR 210 and MEUR 214 (revenues in 2007: MEUR 190.9). The EBIT margin for the current fiscal year should be between 6.2% and 6.4% (EBIT margin in 2007: 6.0%).

Further figures and details will be published together with the Q2 2008 interim report on July 30, 2008 on the company's home page, www.itelligence.de.
