SAP appoints itelligence Special Expertise Duet Partner and Special Expertise Partner for Financials

Bielefeld, September 12, 2006 – itelligence has been appointed Special Expertise Duet Partner and Special Expertise Partner for Financials by SAP Deutschland GmbH & Co. KG. The two new appointments confirm itelligence's position as one of the leading companies in SAP's Special Expertise Partner program. itelligence is one of the first German SAP partners to realize access to the SAP system from a Windows application using the Duet software.

Herbert Vogel, CEO of itelligence AG: "We see ourselves as pioneers. Our customers expect us to customize SAP's cutting-edge technology to suit their processes using our tried and tested industry solutions. The seal of quality that being appointed a Special Expertise Partner for an industry area provides helps clearly document our exceptional performance. The new Duet partnership offers us a competitive advantage that we intend to leverage."

SAP also appointed itelligence as a Special Expertise Partner for Financials. The Financials partner group in Germany currently consists of just four selected partners. SAP Financials covers all accounting topics, the Financial Supply Chain Management product, the area of business intelligence, process consultancy, as well as process optimization and thus provides all the work tools required to guarantee highly efficient financial processes, plan corporate strategies and reduce costs.

The consultants were also awarded SAP certification in the area of SAP NetWeaver Portal and SAP NetWeaver J2EE development. itelligence was also reappointed as Special Expertise Partner for SAP Automotive this year.

Michael Vollmer, manager of mySAP Solutions at itelligence: “Our customers deliberately choose itelligence because they wish to work with a full service provider that supports SAP’s entire product range. The numerous Special Expertise partnerships document SAP’s now extremely diverse product range and the proven expertise of itelligence consultants. Nonetheless, the Special Expertise Partners for each subject are members of a very exclusive group, as SAP makes very high demands for each subject area. It is quite unique for a consultancy to cover such a wide spectrum of subjects, in particular in the midmarket.”

itelligence is not only entering into Special Expertise partnerships in Germany. In Austria, SAP appointed the IT full-service provider a Territory Partner in the trade and metal/paper/wood industries.
