

itelligence at Ifabo: Specialist industry know-how for SAP solutions - maximum business intelligence expertise

Vienna, September - 02- 2002 – itelligence, the SAP full-service provider and individual IT supplier, will present its capabilities at the ifabo show in Vienna from September 17 to 20. Visitors will be provided with detailed information on itelligence's mySAP-com-based vertical solutions as well as individual IT developments at stand 10806, which is run jointly by itelligence and SAP in Hall 10. itelligence has implemented major SAP, business intelligence and individual software development projects in Austria, e.g. for Austrian Airlines, Frequentis, Milupa, Austrian Railways (ÖBB), Esso, Kraftverkehr Nagel and Österreichische Post AG.

Trade visitors will be provided with information on vertical solutions developed on the basis of mySAP.com: it.automotive supplier, it.chemicals, it.engine (engineering and high-tech industries), it.service (services sector), it.trade (wholesale distributors), it.wood (woodworking and furniture industry), it.metal (steel and NF metals industry).

itelligence offers clearly defined strategies and concepts, professional project management and communication based on standardized approaches to meet the highly specialized individual IT consulting requirements of large corporations. This way, itelligence lays the foundation for well-positioned, short and successful projects - also where business intelligence, data warehouse and IT integration solutions are concerned.

Over the past years, itelligence has established a successful position in the area of knowledge management, finance & controlling/planning & budgeting and customer relationship management. The range of services is complemented by the integration of heterogeneous system environments into user-friendly Internet applications.

Internationality, extensive industry know-how and close, long-standing cooperation with partners such as SAP, Cognos and Microsoft are the key features of itelligence. Employing some 1,450 people, including almost 30 in Austria, itelligence has an unusually high number of certifications: SAP Alliance Partner – Services, SAP Value Added Reseller, SAP Channel Partner Hosted Solutions and SAP Hosting Partner, Cognos Service Partner, Cognos Reseller Partner and Microsoft Certified Partner.

Since July 2002, the Austrian intelligence team has been managed by Dr. Birgit Bohnhorst and Ralf Klemisch. Both Managing Directors have clearly defined their plans: "We want to expand our strengths in the business intelligence and individual software sector and serve our customers as strategic and implementation partners for Cognos, Microsoft and SAP projects. As far as the SAP business is concerned, we will aim for a similarly strong position as in the German market," said Dr. Bohnhorst. Ralf Klemisch: "Our SAP activities in Austria will also focus on our SAP-based solutions and the successful partnership with SAP AG".
